U.S. DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT
OF NEW YORK

Plaintiff, Amy Madus ("Madus") through her undersigned attorney, alleges as follows:

The Parties

1. Plaintiff, Amy Madus, is an individual with citizenship in the State of New Jersey.
2. Upon information and belief, defendant Amazon Relocation Services, Inc. (hereinafter "Amazon") is a corporation, organized under the laws of the State of New York with a principal place of business at 5726 First Avenue, Brooklyn, New York 11220.

Jurisdiction & Venue

3. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 as this action arises from the carriage of goods in interstate commerce and is governed by the Carmack Amendment to the Interstate Commerce Act, 49 U.S.C. § 14706, and federal statutes and federal common law. Concurrently there is diversity, pendent, ancillary and supplemental jurisdiction as to certain aspects of the claim in suit.
4. Plaintiff seeks recovery for defendant's breaches of contract and torts. The amount in controversy, exclusive of interests and costs, exceeds $75,000.00.
5. Venue is proper because the defendant conducts business in and is located in the Eastern District of New York.

First Cause of Action

6. Plaintiff seeks to recover damages for the nondelivery, shortage and loss to a shipment of household goods shipped by plaintiff and consigned to defendant (hereinafter all referred to as the "Shipment").

7. On or about January 5, 2012 Shipment was received into the care, custody and control of defendant in good order and condition for intended truck carriage from West New York, New Jersey to Port Richey, Florida, as described more fully in a certain bill of lading believed to be US DOT 1915718 (hereinafter the "Bill of Lading").

8. Madus was the owner of the Shipment.

9. Plaintiff sues herein on her own behalf and as agent on behalf of anyone else who may have an interest in this action.

10. Madus tendered Amazon $2,500 as payment for shipping charges associated with the Shipment.

11. At a date subsequent to January 5, 2012 Amazon notified Madus that her goods had been totally destroyed.

12. Amazon failed to deliver the Shipment at the agreed destination and no subsequent delivery has been tendered.

13. As a result of the aforesaid, defendant is liable to plaintiff as commons carriers, forwarders, warehousemen, and/or bailees for hire.

14. Madus timely filed a claim with Amazon, and Amazon responded with a nominal offer, substantially less than the loss she suffered as a result of the destruction of her goods.

15. By reason of the aforesaid nondelivery, shortage and loss to the Shipment, plaintiff has sustained damages in the amount of $200,000.00, no part of which has been paid although duly demanded.

Second Cause of Action

16. Plaintiff repeats and realleges the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 15 of this complaint.

17. Upon reviewing the Bill of Lading with plaintiff, defendant failed to offer plaintiff the reasonable opportunity to elect full liability protection for the Shipment.

18. Moreover, Amazon failed to inform Madus that its liability would be limited in case of loss.

19. After tendering Madus with the Bill of Lading, Amazon completed the waiver part of that form after it had been signed by Madus and without her authorization. A copy of the Bill of Lading is attached and incorporated by reference.

20. By reason of the aforesaid actions by the defendant, plaintiff has sustained damages in the amount of $200,000.00, no part of which has been paid although duly demanded.

Third Cause of Action

21. Plaintiff repeats and realleges the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 20 of this complaint.

22. The loss of the shipment in this suit was caused in whole or in part by defendant's failure to properly provide and/or arrange transportation services for the shipment in suit, including the failure to exercise due care in (a) the arranging of the carriage of the shipment by road; (b) the selection of a competent, qualified, and/or properly insured motor carrier; and (c) the instructing, monitoring and supervising of the hired motor carrier with respect to the carriage of the shipment.

23. Accordingly, even if defendant alleges that it acted as a "broker" or third-party logistics service-provider, instead of a Carmack Amendment carrier or forwarder, it is liable to plaintiff for breach of the duties outlined in the preceding causes of action.

24. By reason of the aforesaid actions by the defendant, plaintiff has sustained damages in the amount of $200,000.00, no part of which has been paid although duly demanded.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff demands judgment against defendant under the First Cause of Action, Second Cause of Action and Third Cause of Action for:

- a) the sum of $200,000.00;
- b) prejudgment interest at the rate of 9% per annum;
- c) the costs of this action;
- d) other such relief as the Court deems just and proper.

DEMAND FOR TRIAL BY JURY

Plaintiff hereby demands, pursuant to Rule 38(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, a trial by jury in this action.
